Ottawa, Ontario K1V 8M2

Dear Ms. Auer:

This is to acknowledge your request was received in this office on June 10, 2022. We note that, pursuant to the Access to Information Act (ATIA), you wish to obtain the following information:

“S. 25(1) of the 1991 Broadcasting Act states that the CRTC "shall forward to the Minister a report" with respect to the CBC's contravention of a CRTC regulation. Section 10(3) of the CRTC's Television Broadcasting Regulations, 1987 requires the submission of program logs along with an attestation by the licensee of the logs' accuracy. In Decision 2004-531 at paragraphs 11 and 12 the CRTC determined that the original and corrected program logs submitted by the CBVT-TV Quebec contained errors. Please provide a copy of the report submitted to the Minister about this breach by CBC of the requirement of the CRTC's Television Regulations that logs submitted to the CRTC be accurate.”

We are undertaking the necessary search of our records and will inform you of the status of your request within 30 days of its receipt.

Please be advised that you are entitled to complain to the Information Commissioner concerning the processing of your request within 60 days after the day that you become aware that grounds for a complaint exist.

In the event you decide to avail yourself of this right, your notice of complaint should be addressed to:

Office of the Information Commissioner
30 Victoria Street, 7th Floor
Gatineau, QC K1A 1H3

You may obtain additional information on the complaint process by visiting the website of the Office of the Information Commissioner at www.oic-ci.gc.ca.

Please find enclosed an Information Sheet listing the principles that we will follow in processing your request, this also explains the circumstances under which the time limit may be extended.

We will notify you should a time extension be required.

This letter will also acknowledge receipt of your application fee of $5.00.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact Ana Maria Mory Olivares via email at AIPRP-ATIP@crtc.gc.ca.

Sincerely,

Mpume Mtimkulu

Principles for assisting applicants

In processing your request under the Access to Information Act, we will:

1. Process your request without regard to your identity.
2. Offer reasonable assistance throughout the request process.
3. Provide information on the Access to Information Act, including information on the processing of your request and your right to complain to the Information Commissioner of Canada.
4. Inform you as appropriate and without undue delay when your request needs to be clarified.
5. Make every reasonable effort to locate and retrieve the requested records under the control of the government institution.
6. Apply limited and specific exemptions to the requested records.
7. Provide accurate and complete responses.
8. Provide timely access to the requested information.
9. Provide records in the format and official language requested, as appropriate.
10. Provide an appropriate location within the government institution to examine the requested information.

Extension of time limits

In addition, an extension of time may be required. Subsection 9(1) of the Access to Information Act allows the head of a government institution, or his or her delegate, to extend the initial period under the following three circumstances:

- a) the request is for a large number of records or requires a search through a large number of records and meeting the original time limit, under either of these circumstances, would interfere unreasonably with the institution's operations;
- b) consultation is necessary and it cannot be completed within the 30-day statutory deadline;
- c) notice is given to a third party under subsection 27(1) of the Access to Information Act.
